But one thing I find very interesting is the Black bond between brothers of fraternal organizations. As I ponder and reflect on the powerful history of my fellow African Americans, I think of the many avenues we use to celebrate our culture. The video starts with the brothers reciting the poem "House of Alpha" by Sidney P. The video was directed and edited by Sekou Luke, executive produced by Dominique Lee and produced by 8th Wonder. Brown and then breaking out into song. Brown, and four Alpha brothers sharing unity singing the fraternal hymn. The hymn should be sung in sophistication and majesty only heard from the voices of the Brotherhood. We applaud Brother Simpson and Brother Erby for capturing the true essence of the Fraternity with song. In the words of Brother Pauley, the Fraternity Hymn has continued to be "elevated, enriched and ennobled by the passionate singing of thousands of Alpha Men". Just imagine this song was originally composed as a "plantation melody and arranged for both solo and barbershop quartets in the 1880's" to the prominence of today.... "Alpha Phi Alpha, the pride of our hearts, love by us dearly art thou. We cherish thy precepts, thy banner shall be raised, To thy glory thy honor and renown".... The rhythm of the hymn is reserved and less active as dotted rhythms, are replaced in several places by longer notes values of equal time duration. Many deeds, scholarship, and love for all Mankind, are the aims of our dear Fraternity. A committee was appointed in 1915, but no decision was made as to the official adoption of a song. The brothers of Alpha Phi Alpha just released a powerful rendition of their fraternity hymn. He has created history. During the year of 1920, Brother Simpson's composition was referred to the song committee, which would be adopted with some records reporting during the 18th Annual Convention in 1925, as the "National Frat Song" in the tune of "Far Away in the South". Through the years, the hymn has maintained a level solemn and reflection for the Brothers. The verse of the song is 16 measures, form of the verse portion is "aa" (8+8) and the refrain portion is "cd" (8+8), which denotes that the two phases of the verse are similar and the refrain is comprises of two phrases of new melodic material as reported by Brother Pauley. To thy glory, thy honor, and renown. Erby (Xi '25) completed his arrangement after the adoption in 1925. Brother Thomas Pauley, Past National Historian, reported that Brother Simpson musical source for the hymn was "That Old Cabin Home Upon the Hill" written by Frank Dumont and published in 1880. Other variations of the song were submitted but none were adopted. Erby Xi Chapter Verse 1 In our dear, A Phi A, fraternal spirit binds All the noble, the true and courageous. Brother Sean C. They transcended all! With Dominique celebrating his fraternal hymn, he asked himself, "why isn't there an updated version of our fraternity hymn?" That thought-provoking moment encouraged Dominique to do something different for the culture and urged him to get to work on doing it. The powerful The Hymn Project video opens with the House of Alpha poem by Alpha Phi Alpha member Sydney P. Be the first. Simpson Music by John J. Celebrating the fraternal power of these organizations is very important. L. Our true hearts ever strive, success' goal to gain. Alphas who are members of The Hymn Project recently published an extremely polished video in which they sing the National Alpha Phi Alpha Hymn. "In our dear A Phi A, Fraternal Spirit Binds, All the noble the true and courageous". This begins the first line to what we know as our "Fraternity Hymn", our song revered by all Brothers and sung after every meeting, event, convention, and special occasions when Brothers gather. Chorus Alpha Phi Alpha; the pride of our hearts and loved by us dearly art thou. The brothers featured in the video are Martavius Leonard, Ken Alston Jr., Ron Liburd, and Dominique Lee. Simpson (Xi '12), who would become the composer of our song. Since 1906, the men of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. Brother Erby considered the hymn to contain a significant amount of chromaticism, especially at the phrase endings and the reflective "barbershop quartet" style of singing from the late 1800's. Founded October 13, 1926 Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved, a worker who does not need to be ashamed and who correctly handles the word of truth. That our dear Fraternity's praises may be sung. For decades, our people have used hymns to mourn, rejoice, and get through times of adversity, and it'd be silly of us not to cherish those hymns. Lee, founder of 8th Wonder, a boutique entertainment and brand management firm, and a brother of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Incorporated is using his fraternal bond to celebrate Black history by not only celebrating the culture but by honoring his fraternal hymn with The Hymn Project. By 1929, the Fraternity Song was recognized as the "National Hymn", with publication of the hymn going far back at 1925, 1929, and 1935, as well in our history book. The Alpha men featured in the video are Martavius Leonard, Ken Alston Jr., Ron Liburd, and Dominique Lee. African Americans dealt with racism at an all-time high, and the discrimination was like no other. Verse 2 We hold ever aloft, noble ideals and aims, carrying out earth's and heaven's grand command. He was elected General Vice President in 1914 under General President Henry Lake Dickerson and in 1915 during the year our Jewel Callis served as General President. And the recollection slowly fades away. The vocal producer and engineer was Martavius Leonard and mixing and mastering was done by Jermaine Frierson. With that, none other than Dominique J. Our renewed A Phi A and dear fraternal bond. With the Hymn Project, Dominique has revamped and given a more modern life to the hymn. It was our Brother Abram L. May they ever abide and with us stay. Alpha Alpha Lambda Chapter, Inc. We cherish thy precepts, thy banner shall be raised, have stayed true to their motto "First of All, Servants of All, We Shall Transcend All."
